

APPLY
TO THE

PATHWAY SCHOLARS

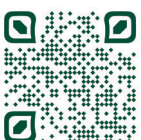

Michigan State University College of Law invites students interested in Fall 2026 law school matriculation to apply for the Pathway Scholars Program, a program to prepare prelaw students to successfully enroll in law school.

All Programming and Room &
Board will be Provided
FREE of Cost

SCHOLARS WILL:

- Prepare for the LSAT (Law School Admissions Test)
- Engage in introductory law courses taught by MSU College of Law faculty
- Build skills in analytical reasoning, reading comprehension, legal writing, oral advocacy, and leadership development
- Learn how to overcome systemic barriers

- Plan a path to successful enrollment and financing of a law degree with the support of experienced admissions professionals
- Network and build relationships with law students, lawyers, professors, and judges
- Visit law offices, courts, and more on legal community excursions
- Receive a $1,000 stipend for successful completion of the program

Learn more at: law.msu.edu/pathway or by contacting Audra Foster, Director of Pipeline Programming, Outreach, and Education at (517) 432-6810 or pathways@law.msu.edu